SATAC at Tertiary Studies and Careers Expo

In 2023 SATAC will once again host information sessions for career counsellors and advisers at schools, as well as any other staff who provide advice on the SATAC system and processes.

As in previous years, sessions will be held both face-to-face and online, with further details including dates, times and venues, to be made available early in Term 2.

We will also continue our Year 12 information sessions this year, and hope to reach as many of you as possible. These sessions are expected to take place in Term 3 to align with the opening of the new admission cycle. Further information, including how to register your school for one of these sessions will be provided in due course.

2023 school contact information

Thank you to everyone who has provided contact information for themselves and their school to receive communications from SATAC throughout 2023. If you need to update any details, please email schools@satac.edu.au.

Midyear and Semester 2 applications for 2023

Midyear undergraduate applications for 2023 are currently open. Application closing dates vary across courses, so applicants should use SATAC's Course Search to check if their preferred course has a midyear intake and is still accepting applications.

TAFE SA applications for courses starting in Semester 2 will open on Monday, 24 April.

Check SATAC's key dates for up-to-date information on application deadlines and offer rounds.
